Sponsorship and Exhibitor Opportunities

About Self-Advocacy . . .

Self-advocates are persons with intellectual or developmental disabilities who speak for themselves and participate in decisions about their lives. They promote their abilities and use their talents and voices to benefit all persons with disabilities. Self-advocates often work together in groups to accomplish their goals with a united effort and promote awareness about the need for inclusion for all.

About FL SAND . . .

FL SAND is an independent 501(c)3 organization that was formed by and is operated by self-advocates. FL SAND has a board of directors and is comprised of 15 local grassroots groups that advocate in their communities. FL SAND provides a united voice on statewide issues and topics that are important to all persons with disabilities throughout the state, such as transportation, employment, and healthcare.

Invest in the FL SAND Annual Conference . . .

The FL SAND Annual Conference is the largest gathering of self-advocates in the state. More than 100 self-advocates, their allies, and provider agency representatives will be on hand in support of FL SAND and the self-advocacy movement. The annual conference offers self-advocates opportunities to network with their colleagues from around the state and learn new skills via training on topics such as planning a candidate forum and fundraising. The conference offers your company the opportunity to, not only showcase your goods and services to this important group, but to herald your support for more vibrant opportunities for persons with developmental disabilities in Florida. Your support will help FL SAND members continue to make a difference in their communities and throughout the state! Sponsorship opportunities range from $250 to $3000.
